

Dr. Huzefa Shakir is an expert in complete product development lifecycle management with end-to-end experience in research and development, product commercialization and operations management. He has over 15 years of experience working globally in highly diverse roles and functions with a variety of industries renowned for services (Halliburton), reliability (GE) and operational excellence (Suzuki).

Apart from his professional work, Huzefa is also actively involved in a number of voluntary organizations. He has been serving on the executive committee of IIT Alumni of Greater Houston since 2008 and has held a variety of positions including Secretary, Publicity Chair, Branding Lead and Treasurer. He also played an instrumental role in Marketing and PR committee during the IIT 2013 Global Conference in Houston as the Graphics / Design Lead.

Huzefa holds a Bachelor's and a Doctoral degree from the Indian Institute of Technology and Texas A&M University respectively, both in Mechanical Engineering. He is the author a number of publications including a book and more than a dozen journal and conference papers. He also holds patents in the areas of Oil and Gas research and is recipient of numerous awards and recognitions from his employers, alma mater and the government. He lives in Houston with his wife and two children.